ENVIRONMENTALLY FRIENDLY COMPOSITE POLYMER MATERIA

The main part of the product materials is polymer composite.

It is heat-resistant, corrosion-resistant product and has the highest impact resistance capability.

The impact resistance is higher as the ethylene increases.

As a result, the good surface is strong and scratch-resistant.

PLASTICPLYWOODS.COM

Our close-knit team has been diligently engaged in the production of high-quality plastic goods for 9 years to ensure the comfort and convenience of residents not only in our country, but also abroad. We have put a lot of effort into finding and then using safe and durable materials to make our products. Previously, we replenished our assortment with polymer sheets.
